

Please DO NOT change or alter the current FCC ownership rules.
Allowing one company to own up to 45% of the media market will be antithetical to a free press, which is the basis of a strong democracy in the United States.